Celebrating CREW-Orange County's 30th Anniversary

How to be Remembered for the Next 30 Years

Sterling Public Relations, Inc. was founded in 2008 by media maven and strategist, Paula Steurer, and has grown to 3 locations across the US. Paula's expertise, strategic approach and innovative thinking provide a distinct platform for her to engage audiences of all ages and stages of their career paths.

Paula previously was the opening speaker and host at Irvine's Women of Influence Conference, selected by the Chamber of Commerce for her thought leadership. She has also been a featured speaker for Oracle and VIZIO, and developed career-building marketing campaigns for multiple real estate professionals. Paula is known for her BOLD ideas and candid delivery that make the audience look deep within themselves and act. This is how a legacy is built, and how you can be remembered for the next 30 years.
